SECRETARIES OF CONFERENCES AND MISSIONS

The following list of Secretaries, with their post office addresses, is published herewith as an aid to the Bishops and Conference Secretaries in making the transfers of preachers, especially during the time of the Conference sessions. Often they are hindered, if it should be the Fall Conference that is being held, in making the transfer to a Spring Conference, by not knowing to whom to send the certificate of transfer. It is hoped this may be of advantage both to the Bishop and the Secretary.

This list is correct according to the latest information. SPRING CONFERENCES are designated by a (*). FALL CONFERENCES are unmarked.—EDITOR.

DEATH ROLL

The Editor does his best each year to make more perfect the Death Roll, but does not receive sufficient encouragement from all Conferences to accomplish his purpose. Many secretaries pay no attention to the blank sent to them, while others are very faithful to fill it out. If these Conference scribes will only furnish complete lists we can send down to posterity one line of the history of each man who has gone to his reward. Certainly we should afford them that much.

BISHOP HOMER CLYDE STUNTZ

Born January 29, 1858

Died June 3, 1924.

The striking down of this great and good man was a violent shock to the people of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who knew him best. He began his career expecting to be a lawyer. The spirit of God touched him and he went forth to "Preach the Word."

He made ready for it at Garrett, entering the ministry in Iowa, found that he had not mistaken his call as men heard his invitation and became the followers of his Christ.

Years ago, he heard the call for the Mission Field and went to India. Came back to the United States for awhile; later went to the Philippines at the call of Bishop Thoburn, and became in that field a great Christian leader. His ability, skill and Christian statesmanship attracted the attention of such a man as the then Governor General Taft. Failing health brought him back to America. He stirred the church with his addresses on Missions, and was soon made one of the Secretaries of the Board of Foreign Missions, and from there was elected to the Episcopacy in 1912. He offered his services for Latin America, where he spent four years to the joy of the people with whom he mingled; then came to the Omaha Area, where he was closing eight years, when suddenly he was smitten and after lingering for a few months went triumphantly home to God.

He was a man greatly beloved by all who knew him. Let a few of them speak concerning him, just a few. There is not room for all who could be called upon.

Bishop Lowe said: "Bishop Stuntz was a great lover. He loved his home and his family, he loved the church, he loved folks, and he loved his Lord with a consuming passion. He never lost the keen edge of his evangelistic passion. To the very end of his days he counted it his supremest joy to lead some soul to the fount of redemption. In his extraordinary career he touched many lands, thousands of preachers and multiplied thousands of laymen. God had richly endowed him and he used his endowment in his pursuit of the King's business. Bishop Stuntz was a Christian imperialist and has so impressed himself upon the mind of his day and generation. But those of us who knew him intimately will remember him always as primarily a warm hearted, kindly-souled, forward-looking brother. Methodism on earth will be very much poorer because of his passing. Methodism in the Church Triumphant will be very much richer. Year by year Heaven becomes more lovely."

Bishop Cooke said: "Bishop Stuntz was a tireless worker. He did not sit in his broadcloth and draw his salary. He earned it, as all our bishops do. He was a good administrator, not studying the wind nor seeking the line of least resistance. He got along with the brethren multitudinous as they are and of infinite variety. God was kind to him, as the light began to die on the hills. His son from far India and the wife of his heart were with him when the morning broke and the trumpets of God sounded for him on the other side."

Bishop McDowell. "At his best and on certain themes like Missions or the Place of Christianity in the World, it would be difficult to name his equal. I felt so strongly his platform gifts that it seemed to me the church needed him in the missionary secretaryship as an advocate of missions almost more than it needed him anywhere else. And in the days immediately ahead of us when the cause of Christ's kingdom in the whole world must have a new statement and hearing, we shall long for the music of Homer Stuntz's voice, the breadth and clearness of his vision as to the meaning of Christ for the race and the nations. I do not know anyone else who can bend his bow."

Frank Mason North said: "His was the appeal of a loving, tender, Divinely stirred heart when, in India, in the Philippines, in his own land, he urged upon men the claims and the power of the Son of Man, the Saviour of the World. Pastor, missionary, secretary, bishop, he was always vital, urgent, forward looking, bold in action, confident in Christ, ready for service, sure of victory. And surely victory is now his."

Pages could be filled with matter like this, but it has been printed otherwheres, and men have read it. In this more permanent volume, few will read it, but for a century at least, it will be found here. "He being dead, yet speaketh."
